

PEACE WITH CREATION

SEASON OF CREATION 2025

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Key LS - Laudato Si' LD - Laudate Deum CC - Canticle of the Creatures RB - Rule of St. Benedict	September 1 Labor Day "... our common home is like a sister with whom we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us." LS 1	2 "... it is indubitable that the impact of climate change will increasingly prejudice the lives and families of many persons." LD 2	3 "Be praised, my Lord, through all Your creatures, especially through my lord Brother Sun, who brings the day; and You give light through him." CC	4 "... regard all utensils and goods ... as sacred vessels of the altar..." RB 31, 10	5 "This sister now cries out to us because of the harm we have inflicted on her by our irresponsible use and abuse of the goods with which God has endowed her." LS 2	6 "The effects of climate change are borne by the most vulnerable people, whether at home or around the world." LD 3
7 "Be praised, my Lord, through Sister Moon and the stars; in the heavens You have made them bright, precious and beautiful." CC	8 "Environmental stewardship is an important and often overlooked part of monastic spirituality, and an important monastic value." Adrian Burke, OSB	9 "I believe that Saint Francis is the example par excellence of care for the vulnerable and of an integral ecology lived out joyfully and authentically." LS 10	10 "... specific climate changes provoked by humanity are notably heightening the probability of extreme phenomena that are increasingly frequent and intense." LD 5	11 "Be praised, my Lord, through Brothers Wind and Air, and clouds and storms, and all the weather, through which You give Your creatures sustenance." CC	12 "All things should be the common possession of all, as it is written, so that no one presumes to call anything his own." RB 33, 6	13 "... if we feel intimately united with all that exists, then sobriety and care will well up spontaneously." LS 11
14 "It is no longer possible to doubt the human - 'anthropic' - origin of climate change." LD 11	15 "Be praised, my Lord, through Sister Water; she is very useful, and humble, and precious, and pure." CC	16 "Your way of acting should be different from the world's way; the love of Christ must come before all else." RB 4, 20-21	17 "Saint Francis... invites us to see nature as a magnificent book in which God speaks to us and grants us a glimpse of his infinite beauty and goodness." LS 12	18 "God has united us to all his creatures." LD 66	19 "Be praised, my Lord, through Brother Fire, through whom You brighten the night. He is beautiful and cheerful, and powerful and strong." CC	20 "Care for our Common Home" has to be a central concern above all for anybody who professes a faith in God as creator of this world. Sister Jeanne Bott, OSB
21 "We need a conversation which includes everyone, since the environmental challenge we are undergoing, and its human roots, concern and affect us all." LS 14	22 "I ask everyone to accompany this pilgrimage of reconciliation with the world that is our home and to help make it more beautiful." LD 69	23 "Be praised, my Lord, through our sister Mother Earth, who feeds us and rules us, and produces various fruits with colored flowers and herbs." CC	24 "Our love for God ought to be reflected in our promotion of environmental stewardship." St. John's Abbey	25 "The earth was here before us and it has been given to us." LS 67	26 "Efforts by households to reduce pollution and waste, and to consume with prudence, are creating a new culture." LD 71	27 "If we look at the larger picture, we can see that more diversified and innovative forms of production which impact less on the environment can prove very profitable." LS 191
28 "Monastic poverty means being content with the simple things that sustain human existence in its inherent goodness." Philip Anderson, OSB	29 "This responsibility for God's earth means that human beings... must respect the laws of nature." LS 67	30 "Let us realize... we are helping to bring about large processes of transformation rising from deep within society." LD 71	October 1 "Remember that nothing is small in the eyes of God. Do all that you do with love." St. Therese of Lisieux	2 "We need to have an imagination for the place where we live in such a way that all of us are taking care of it." John Klassen, OSB	3 "In union with all creatures, we journey through this land seeking God." LS 244	4 "Ask the beasts and they will teach you the beauty of this earth." St. Francis of Assisi
